

Participate In Prosperity (PIP)

This program intends to assist and support people towards employment who have experienced any of the following:

- Family Breakdown
- Domestic and/or family violence
- Community and social isolation
- Living in jobless households with children
- Financial hardship
- Unemployment
- A gap in educational and job-skills development

The PIP program will work closely with clients to:

- Identify and support people with a range of support needs to build employability skills
- Assist to identify needs, goals and aspirations towards an independent future
- Assist to develop an individual support plan towards achieving goals
- Assist to build connections to community resources
- Assist with access to education and employment opportunities

Access to this program may assist individuals to:

- Identify and strengthen areas of personal development
- Develop the confidence to participate more actively in the community
- Improve personal financial management and budgeting skills
- Work through (when needed), issues relating to family breakdown and domestic violence
- Identify and strengthen areas for education, training or employment skills development
